"Men of Steel" Opens At Empress Today

There are all right in their way but they are not engaged with a laugh or two to relieve the tension, and then it is just the ordinary old author of "The Scarlet Nemesis" has used when preparing the Belmont Players current vehicle of the Empire theatre. This comedy play with comedy stars will be offered to the theatre goers every evening this week with a popular grand matinee on Saturday afternoon, such value this word-of-mouth advertising was secured from the capacity audience on Thursday night that it seems as if everybody in Edmonton were eager to see the play, judging from the steady demand for seats for the remaining performances. There are still good tickets to be secured but intending patrons should act early.

Without doubt "The Scarlet Nemesis" is one of the most absorbing plays seen here in months.

Weighty Film Cast In "Old Loves and New"

Imagine a motion picture cast whose aggregate weight must be computed in tons. That's the kind of a cast Marion Fairfax, assembled in the filming of "Old Loves and New," which also produced for First National and is featuring at the Princess Theatre this week.

"Why Girls Go Back Home" At Rialto Theatre Today

"Why Girls Go Back Home," which opens at the Rialto theatre today to Saturday tells the story of a defunctured, deluded girl, Marie E. who, who follows Clifford Dooling, a nation's idol, to New York.

Felix Ruth Miller as Marie, the sweetheart of Broadway, and Olive Brook, as the sophisticated, pleasure-seeking motion picture, give splendid performances.

On the same program are two good 2 reel comedies.

"The Student Prince" to Open Here on Monday

There is a type of show that seems to get more and more popular as it reaches town. Such an entertainment is "The Student Prince," which begins its engagement at Empire theatre on Monday, Nov. 12.

This attraction comes to Edmonton with more records attached to it than a prize athlete. It broke the run record in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Atlantic City and Boston. We are told that the promise of this opera in New York on December 6, 1924, and little short of an event, and the following day in the review of the leading critics, called it "The outstanding musical play of our time," which would lead Edmonton theatregoers to expect the ultimate in musical entertainment.

"The Quarterback" Proves Times Have Not Changed

The passage of time has a peculiar kind of effecting change. Changes in one's way of living, the clothes we wear, things we do and even the thoughts we think.

In the Spanish-American war, the introduction of the machine gun, the airplane, and the marriage of former enemies to become friends, led prior to the annual State-Cotton round-up and football season, which had no idea what he was doing when he made that prediction. It happened well—1924 found him still studying with his nose sticking over the cotton fence!

Saved-Off Cowpuncher In "The Phantom Bullet"

Readers of the famous W. C. Tuttle stories telling of the humorous misadventures of the cowboy hero, "The Phantom Bullet," and "Maggie" have been told of the close of the couple. Movie fans have followed him at University's screen presentation of the cowboy comedian appearing in "The Quarterback" and "The Phantom Bullet."

"Phantom" Holmes carries a new role for the redemption of patrons of the Monarch theatre.

AT THE EMPRESS

Doris Kenyon and Felix Campbell in "The Student Prince"

"Waltz Dream," U.F.A. Picture Wins Prize

"The Waltz Dream," coming to the town theatre today is different in theme and treatment from any U.F.A. picture heretofore presented in America. It has the same quality of "The Caliber of Dr. Caligari," the romance of "Passion," the pathos of "The Last Laugh," and the melodrama of "Nervous."

"The Son of the Sheik" Showing at Dreamland

"The Son of a Sheik," which opens today at the Dreamland theatre, is a black and white film. Rudolph Valentino's pathos, heralded sequel to the picture which brought the name "Sheik" into repute all over the world proves that while a son may be like his father, his outline is much wider.

COOLIDGE FOR CONSCRIPTION, PREPAREDNESS

Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 11.—President Coolidge served formal notice today that he would not state whether or not he would support the conscription bill.

The address was in dedication of the Liberty Memorial, erected by the people of this city in memory of its citizens who served in the great war.

In speaking of conscription, Mr. Coolidge said that "it is more and more becoming the conviction of students of the situation that the time of national peril the government will call into its service all of its resources and all of the property under such terms and conditions that it may completely avoid making a sacrifice of one and a brother of another."

After asserting that the armistice of 1918 "did not mark the end of the war, for the end is not yet," Mr. Coolidge declared for adequate military force and all of the property under such terms and conditions that it may completely avoid making a sacrifice of one and a brother of another."

He reiterated the desire of the Washington government for a "peace of competitive armistices."

WHEAT PRICES
CLOSE LOWER

Lack of Buying Support
And of Export Trade
Responsible

WINNIPEG, Nov. 11.—A distinct lack of good buying support, coupled with disappointing export trade, caused today's session of the local wheat market. Trade volume was small throughout the session and at the close values ranged from unchanged to 1-4 cent lower.

There was periodical buying during the morning, but the demand was not strong and the market was not buoyant. The export trade was not strong, particularly the ocean steamers, but the market was not buoyant. The export trade was not strong, particularly the ocean steamers, but the market was not buoyant.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Speculators for the advance registered on the close of the stock market, which was followed by the strength and activity of the market and public utility shares. Bulls failed to get any appreciable results in the establishment of a new freight record and little progress was made by the market, but outstanding strength was shown by number of food, mercantile, chemical and other shares.
